RE Conference Series

The IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE) is the premier requirements engineering conference. It grew out of two alternating biennial conference series, the IEEE Symposium on Requirements Engineering and the IEEE Conference on Requirements Engineering, which formally merged in 2002.

Past Conferences

- 20th IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'12), Chicago, Illinois, USA, September 2012
- 19th IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'11), Trento, Italy, August/September 2011
- 18th IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'10), Sydney, Australia, September/October 2010
- 17th IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'09), Atlanta, Georgia, USA, August/September 2009
- 16th IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'08), Barcelona, Catalunya, Spain, September 2008
- 15th IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'07), New Delhi, India, October 2007
- 14th IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'06), Minneapolis, Minnesota,

News

In 2013, RE comes to South America for the first time! Note the July date... now is the time to start planning your contributions. We look forward to welcoming both RE and you to Rio.

Key Dates in 2013

- Jan 14: Workshop Proposals
- Jan 21: Research, Industry, & RE@21 Abstracts
- Jan 28: Research, Industry, & RE@21 Papers
- Feb 1: Notice of Intent to Submit (Tutorials)
- Feb 25: Tutorial Proposals
- Mar 4: Panel & Debate Proposals
- Apr 3: Doctoral Symposium Submissions
- Apr 8: Poster & Demo Submissions
- RE Interactive: Always open to suggestions!

The screenshot shows the IEEE Requirements Engineering website. On the left is a dark blue navigation menu with white text. The main content area is light gray and contains a list of conferences from 2002 to 2006. A sidebar on the right has a green header, a large white box, and a blue footer with a Twitter icon and the text 'Join the conversation'.

14th IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'06), Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA, September 2006

13th IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'05), Paris, France, August/September 2005

12th IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'04), Kyoto, Japan, September 2004

11th IEEE International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'03), Monterey Bay, California, USA, September 2003

10th IEEE Joint International Requirements Engineering Conference (RE'02), Essen, Germany, September 2002

Prior to 2002, there were two biennial RE conference series: the IEEE International Symposium on Requirements Engineering and the IEEE International Conference on Requirements Engineering.

- Fifth IEEE International Symposium on Requirements Engineering (RE'01), Toronto, Canada, 2001
- Fourth IEEE International Conference on Requirements Engineering (ICRE'00), Schaumburg, Illinois, 2000
- Fourth IEEE International Symposium on Requirements Engineering (RE'99), Limerick, Ireland, 1999
- Third IEEE International Conference on Requirements Engineering (ICRE'98), Colorado Springs, Colorado, USA, 1998
- Third IEEE International Symposium on Requirements Engineering (RE'97), Annapolis, Maryland, USA, 1997
- Second IEEE International Conference on Requirements Engineering (ICRE'96), Colorado Springs, Colorado, USA, 1996
- Second IEEE International Symposium on Requirements Engineering (RE'95), York, UK, 1995
- First IEEE International Conference on Requirements Engineering (ICRE'94), Colorado Springs, Colorado, USA, 1994
- First IEEE International Symposium on Requirements Engineering (RE'93), San Diego, California, USA, 1993

Conferences – The next-tier event: RefsQ

- One of the leading international forum to discuss RE in its many relations to quality.
 - Working conference format
 - Highly structured and interactive forum
 - Provoke discussion among the presenters of papers, pre-assigned discussants, and all the other participants.
 - Annually
 - Founded as a workshop in 1994
 - Proceedings: Springer LNCS (from 2007). For previous proceedings see http://www.sse.uni-due.de/refsq/2012/?page_id=47
- <http://www.refsq.org>

Other conferences

- Annual:
 - ICSE (International Conference on Software Engineering)
 - CAiSE (Conference on Advanced Information Systems Engineering)
 - APSEC (Asia-Pacific Software Engineering Conference)
- Biennial
 - ESEC/FSE (European Software Engineering Conference / ACM SIGSOFT Symposium on the Foundations of Software Engineering)
 - FSE (ACM SIGSOFT Symposium on the Foundations of Software Engineering)
- Commercial Conferences (for practitioners only)
 - RE-Days (a German event) <http://www.requirementsdays.de>
 - REConf (also a German event) <http://reconf.de/>

Journals – The flagship journal: REJ

- Requirements Engineering Journal (Springer)
- Publishes research papers only
- Geared towards an academic audience

Journals – The practitioner journal: IEEE Software

- IEEE Software Magazine (IEEE)
- Publishes practitioner-oriented research and experience
- Geared towards practitioners

- Included in IEEE membership
- Reduced fee for students

Journals – Other Journals

- TSE – IEEE Transactions on Software Engineering (IEEE)

- IST – Information and Software Technology (Elsevier)

- SoSyM – Software and Systems Modeling (Springer)

- Information Systems (Elsevier)

- Journal of Systems and Software (JSS)

Access to Papers

- All aforementioned journals are electronically available in the UZH electronic journal library:
 - Go to <http://www.uzh.ch/services/libraries.html>
 - Scroll down and click “E-Zeitschriftenbibliothek”
 - works only from the domain `uzh.ch`, use VPN from home
- Available on paper in the library of the Department of Informatics:
 - IEEE Software
 - TSE (back to volume 1; early volumes on microfiche)

Access to Papers – 2

- Conference Proceedings
 - IEEE conferences and workshops
 - IEEE Digital library
 - <http://www.ieeexplore.ieee.org>
 - fulltext available from the domain uzh.ch
 - ACM conferences and workshops
